

Overlays for control panels, displays & push button pads

Graphic Overlays

Custom Graphics uses 3M adhesives and GE polycarbonates to produce overlays to act as a seal for enclosure, a push button pad to identify switches, controls, and connectors or to simply provide decorative display for a dash or control panel. We use durable materials constructed with clear or velvet finishes.

We can also produce prototypes that accurately represent your finish product to verify your specifications before production.

